At the meeting on December 20th the Board may consider approving two participation agreements – settlement agreements - related to the opioid Multi-District Litigation Cass County joined three years ago. These settlements involve one manufacturer (Janson) and three distributors (McKessen, Amerisource Bergen, and Cardinal Health) of opioid pain medication.

Under the terms of the agreement North Dakota will receive $45.6M if, and ONLY if, all litigating entities agree to the settlement offer by January 2, 2022. The settlement is to be paid out over 18 years. Cass County's allocation of that could be $656,000, paid out over 18 years. If any of the ND litigating entities do not sign the participation agreement, the overall payout – and Cass County's share – will be reduced.

Cass County's retained opioid litigation counsel; Robins, Geller, Rudman & Dowd has advised the County to sign the participation agreements because it is unlikely we will obtain better settlement terms. Robins, Geller has also assisted Cass County in working with the City of Fargo, the ND Association of Counties, and the ND League of Cities to coordinate our actions across the state to maximize settlement proceeds. It is our understanding that all other ND Counties and ND municipalities with populations over 10,000 have been encouraged to consider approving the same participation agreements prior to the end of the year.

It is likely Cass County will be asked to consider additional participation agreements in the future. Remaining defendants include three additional opioid manufacturers, a distributor, and several pharmacies. There will also likely be disbursements from two bankruptcy proceedings.

These participation agreements contain a default distribution allocation describing how funds allocated to the state will be distributed to political subdivisions. States may adopt a different distribution allocation if an agreement is reached with the political subdivisions, but no such agreement has been reached in ND. It is anticipated that the allocation of these funds may be the subject of legislation in 2023.

By approving the two participation agreements on Monday's agenda, the Board will give Cass County the best opportunity to receive the maximum allocation under the terms of this settlement.

MOTION: Authorize the Chair to sign the Janssen Settlement and Distributor Settlement participation agreements and authorize Robins, Geller, Rudman & Dowd to submit the agreements on behalf of Cass County.

A Releasor may hereafter discover facts other than or different from those which it knows, believes, or assumes to be true with respect to the Released Claims, but each Governmental Entity hereby expressly waives and fully, finally, and forever settles, releases and discharges, upon the Effective Date, any and all Released Claims that may exist as of such date but which Releasors do not know or suspect to exist, whether through ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or through no fault whatsoever, and which, if known, would materially affect the Governmental Entities' decision to participate in the Distributor Settlement.

11. Nothing herein is intended to modify in any way the terms of the Distributor Settlement, to which Governmental Entity hereby agrees. To the extent this Election and Release is interpreted differently from the Distributor Settlement in any respect, the Distributor Settlement controls.

I swear under penalty of perjury that I have all necessary power and authorization to execute this Election and Release on behalf of the Governmental Entity.
